

File Result ASP.Net Core MVC

File Result Action: `FileResult` is the parent of all file related action results. It is a base class that is used to send binary file content to the response. It represents an `ActionResult` that when executed will write a file as the response.